

The last row should see the same story

Three things must survive the room:

01 Main idea

One sentence, no decoding required.

02 Evidence

Numbers remain readable from distance.

03 Action

The audience knows what to do next.

A good headline can hide a bad detail

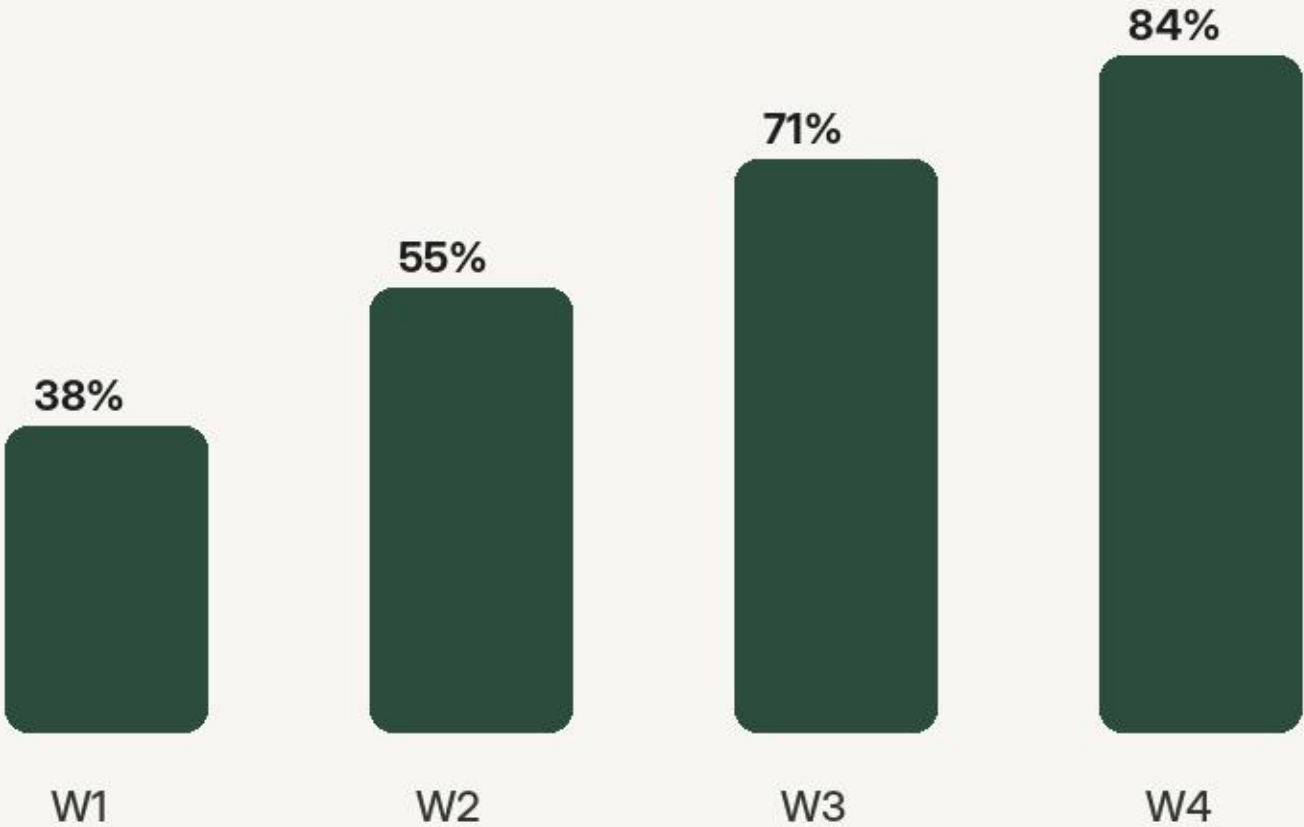

Project completion

Decision condition

Launch only if error rate stays below 2.5%.

Source note: the 2.5% threshold is decision-critical.

Projected contrast is not laptop contrast

Same slide. Different room.

LAPTOP

Looks fine

High local contrast

Sharp edges

Tiny labels feel readable
